KILNAMONA DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION: Win Best Voluntary Community Group Award. Kilnamona Development Association (KDA) have been recognised for their collective efforts in enhancing their local community. KDA were presented with the award by Vitalograph at the recent Clare Business Excellence Awards hosted by the Ennis Chamber of Commerce. This award of €500 was sponsored by Vitalograph.

The adjudicators praised the Kilnamona Development Association's clear and professional strategy, and its business-like and determined approach to sustaining a strong community, across the generations in Kilnamona, through active communication, engagement and a programme of community events.

Trina Rynne, Chairperson said: "We're delighted with this recognition from the Ennis Chamber of Commerce judging process. We're a relatively new group, so it's nice for our progress to be acknowledged in this way. We have a cross-generational focus and aim to benefit residents of all ages and demographics including elderly, youth, parents and newcomers to the parish. It is important to provide a mental health boost to all and promote community spirit. This award will support our plans for 2025

FR. MICHAEL CONWAY: Will speak on the theme "Synodality and the Future of Parish Life" in the Bellbridge Hotel Spanish Point on Wednesday 4th December at 7:30pm. Adm. Free. All are welcome.
